

SIGNIFICANT FINANCIAL INTEREST(S)
DISCLOSURE & TRAINING FOR SUBRECIPIENT
INVESTIGATORS UNDER PHS or DOE PRIME AWARDS

This form was last updated on June 6, 2022.

Form B

Grant/Subaward Title:

(To be filled by Penn State pre-award office prior to sending to subrecipient institution)

I. DISCLOSURE:

You have been identified as either a subrecipient Investigator or a consultant investigator under a PHS or DOE prime award to Penn State, and you have confirmed that either your institution does not have a PHS- or DOE-compliant Conflict of Interest policy or you are participating as an individual consultant. As such, you must submit a Significant Financial Interest Disclosure to Penn State. Only disclose those Significant Financial Interests, including those of your spouse and dependent children, that are directly related to the work you will perform for Penn State under this subaward or consulting agreement. You must complete the attached form and return it to the appropriate office indicated below at the following times:

- No later than at the time of application for PHS or DOE funded research;
- Within 30 days of discovering or acquiring a new Significant Financial Interest;
- At least annually during the period of award.

Upon receipt, Penn State will review the disclosure, determine whether a Financial Conflict of Interest (FCOI) exists, and if so, whether it is possible to manage the FCOI. When a FCOI is identified, Penn State will report the existence and all required details of the FCOI to the PHS or DOE Awarding Component as required by regulation.

Individuals with subawards from all University campus locations except for the College of Medicine at the Milton S. Hershey Medical Center are to submit completed disclosure forms to:
